SUPPRISED FRIENDS.

One of Monessen's Popular Teachers Resigns Position Friday and is Married Yesterday in Pittsburg.

Miss Maudress Montgomery and Mr. Jesse Loughner, both well and favorably known here, were quietly united in marriage yesterday afternoon by Rev. T. Ross Paden of Allegheny, pastor of the West Minster Presbyterian church of that city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of but a few intimate friends.

The affair came as a complete surprise to the many friends of the happy couple, who join in extending them their best wishes for the future. The bride, who was one of our most popular teachers, handed in her resignation Friday to take effect at once and left presumably for her home.

The groom, who was a former High School teacher, is now studying for the ministry at Pittsburg and while here was well thought of by all who knew him They will make their future home in Pittsburg.

Ball Club Off For Hot Springs.

Last Monday evening the Pittsburg Baseball Club started for Hot Springs, where the players will be drilled and put in condition for what promises to be the most interesting championship struggle in the history of the National League. The sporting editor of The Pittsburg Dispatch, Charles B Power, whose interesting reports from the training camp last spring were admittedly the brightest and most entertaining ever published, as usual, accompanied the Pirates and will keep the readers of that journal fully informed as to the movements of the players. Mr. Power is a recognized baseball authority and is well qualified to pass judgment on the young players to be tried by the Pittsburg club, as well as to keep readers of The Dispatch advised as to the form displayed by the old members of the team. Before entering upon newspaper work he was prominent as a player and manager, served two seasons as a National League umpire and later was for five years President of the Inter-State League

With Mr. Power as its sporting editor The Pittsburg Dispatch is the paper that every lover of of baseball should read Leave an order with your newsdealer now. You will enjoy the daily letters from Hot Springs and you will at all times get the best sporting news published.

WHILE unexpected, it cannot be said the present cold weather, with blanket of snow on the ground, is unseasonable. Weather bureau reports show it is a typical March experience in this section. While the cost of such a snowstorm is heavy in the aggregate, it is divided among so many interests, none suffers much. "Glad to see the snow" is a common remark, but whether the sentimental considerations outweigh the practical inconveniences may be questioned.

THE street to the river is not a dead issue, regardless of the fact that some man in Pittsburg "high up in authority" said the town should not jeopardize corporate interests to benefit the people of Monessen.

THAT St. Petersburg newspaper which continues to print daily the losses sustained in the late war evidently is not trying to get out a cheerful publication.

"The street car of the future," says an expert, "will be noiseless, clean and as comfortable as an arm chair." But will it have a seat for every passenger?

WHILE the railroads show no disposition to relinquish voluntarily the $10 deposit, there is a growing sentiment favorable to a compulsory restitution law.

ARIZONA has celebrated the amendment to the statehood bill in a manner that should convince the dullest she is not ready for statehood.

Schliemann's Luck.

It is told of Schliemann, the exhumer of buried cities of the ancient world, that he was pursued by ill luck in his earlier undertakings. Mentioning the fact to a friend, the latter asked him which leg and arm he first inserted in trousers and coat. Schliemann said he habitually inserted the right. "That is the cause of your misfortunes," said his friend. "You have offended the left hand fairies, and they take out their vengeance on you. Reverse your habit and see." "And," said Schliemann in telling the incident in his later and prosperous years, "you see how it changed my luck."

Nicotiana Affinis.

Nicotiana affinis, the border flower which opens about 6 o'clock and gives a powerful and pleasant fragrance during the night, takes its name from the botanical term for the tobacco plant, nicotiana, which was named in honor of John Nicot of Nismes, ambassador from the king of France to Portugal, who procured the first seeds from a Dutchman, who had them from Florida.

AN OLD INDIAN FEUD

THE WAY IT WAS ENDED BY THE ACT OF A LITTLE CHILD.

Story of the Long and Bitter Enmity Between Crazy Wolf and Little Scar. The Incident That Paved the Way to Peace.

Crazy Wolf was a warrior of the Sioux nation who held to all the savage traditions of his race. For years he refused to receive rations from the hands of the whites, and this marked him singular among all the Sioux. His deadly enemy was Little Scar, who had made lasting peace in his heart with the whites and who had yielded little by little to the allurements of civilized living.

The enmity of Crazy Wolf and Little Scar dated from the day of the great battle with the Pawnees.

When the remnant of the stricken Pawnees had turned to fly Crazy Wolf and Little Scar quarreled over the right to take a scalp, and a hand-to-hand combat ensued. The chiefs parted them and said that neither must die, for the nation had need of all its men. Though the hands of Crazy Wolf and Little Scar were stayed by the chieftains, hatred still lived in their hearts.

It was ten years after the battle with the Pawnees and at the Pine Ridge agency, where a portion of the Sioux had been gathered, the government erected a schoolhouse for the Indian children. Instantly a division occurred between the fathers of the tribe. One-half of the warriors wished to send their little ones to the school. The other half declared that the teaching of the whites should never have place in the minds of their children. The children of Little Scar went to the school. The children of Crazy Wolf were kept in the wigwam.

Runners came to Pine Ridge from Standing Rock and the Rosebud. They told of the coming of the Messiah, that the buffalo were returning and that if the southern Sioux would but put their ears to the ground they would hear the thunder of the hoofs of the oncoming herd.

One-half of the warriors at Pine Ridge were seized with the Messiah craze. They danced the ghost dance and put on the ghost shirts. The one-half stampeded from the agency, and with it went Crazy Wolf, as savage in heart as he was when he fought the Pawnees on the frontier of Nebraska. Little Scar stayed at the agency.

One day after the battle of Wounded Knee had been fought a band of twenty Sioux braves broke away from the main body for the sole purpose of raiding Pine Ridge agency and killing the children who were gathered in the schoolhouse—the children of their brothers who had succumbed to the white man's ways. In the band was Crazy Wolf, his heart full of the lust of killing.

The warriors came within sight of the schoolhouse. It stood on a bluff and on one side was absolutely unprotected. Crazy Wolf knew the location of the room in which the little ones gathered daily at their lessons. The mounted warriors made a headlong rush down the valley skirting the ridge, and as they whirled by the school they poured volley after volley into the room where the children of the friendly Sioux daily were assembled.

It was not the fault of Crazy Wolf that on that day there was not a slaughter of the innocents. A teacher had seen the feathered heads showing among the willows by White Clay creek and, taking the alarm, had hurried the children to the cellar.

The raiding band went northward. There was cavalry at the post to take up the pursuit, and the fugitives succeeded in reaching the main body of Indians, who by this time were surrounded by the troops of General Miles and were being gradually forced into the agency.

Crazy Wolf, when he saw the surrender of his brethren was coming, mounted his pony and made for the Bad Lands. He foresaw the end of the uprising and the complete subjugation of his people, and he laid it at the doors of the tepees of the Sioux who had refused to join the braves on the warpath.

Crazy Wolf made up his mind to kill Little Scar. He nearly starved in the Bad Lands, and his pony was dead. A week after the surrender he started for the agency on foot. His ammunition was gone, and he had nothing but his knife. He ate willow bark and roots. Hunger took his bodily strength, but his heart purpose was unweakened.

Crazy Wolf, starving, lay on the bank of the White Clay creek. The tepee of Little Scar was only 300 yards away. Crazy Wolf was famished, but he lay there in the bushes waiting for night and vengeance. He looked down to the water's edge, and there he saw a little girl with a willow basket full of food. The little one looked up and saw the famished eyes of the warrior. She smiled at him and held out her basket. Crazy Wolf knew his strength was going fast. It might not last him till the hour of revenge. He ate the proffered food. The child was modding clay. Suddenly she turned and offered Crazy Wolf the model of a peace pipe. "You have eaten," she said; "now smoke."

Crazy Wolf took the pipe and blew an imaginary cloud of smoke away from his lips. The little one smiled at him again.

"Whose child are you?" asked Crazy Wolf.

"The child of the great warrior Little Scar," was the answer.

Crazy Wolf had eaten the bread of Little Scar and had smoked the pipe of peace. He had never broken a tradition of the Sioux race.

Crazy Wolf walked into the agency and a little child was leading him.—E. B. C. in Chicago Post.

Chicago Society Woman Who Was So Sick She Could Not Sleep or Eat, Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

When a woman's kidneys go wrong, her back gives out and every little task becomes a burden. She is tired, nervous, sleepless, run down—suffers daily from backache, headaches, dizzy spells, and bearing-down pains.

Don't worry over imagined "female troubles." Cure the kidneys and you will be well. Read how to find the cure.

Marion Knight, of 33 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., member of the Chicago Federation of Musicians and a well-known club woman, says: "This winter when I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills I ached in every bone and had intense pains in the kidneys and pelvic organs. The urine was thick and cloudy, and I could barely eat enough to live. I felt a change for the better within a week. The second week I began eating heartily. I began to improve generally, and before seven weeks had passed I was well. I had spent hundreds of dollars for medicine that did not help me, but $6 worth of Doan's Kidney Pills restored me to perfect health."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Miss Knight will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Origanal Laxative Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the origanal Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial effections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A quick cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial effections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Origanal. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache, kidney and bladder troubles. Pineules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with ManZon, the great pile remedy. It is put up in a handy tube with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, pitting, palpitating and frowning. Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

For bloating, belching, indigestion, etc., eat a Ring's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals. Sold by C. A. Light.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

Salve! Salve! Spread the Salve, but let it be Pine Salve, natures remedy for cuts, burns, sores, etc. Sold by C. A. Light.

Diphtheria, sore throat croup. Instant relief, permanent cure. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

For headache, constipation, etc., Dade's Little Liver Pills are the best. They cleanse and tonic the liver. Sold by C. A. Light.

know the value of pure ale in dietetics.

If a patient lacks vitality or nerve force, pure ale at meal time is the usual prescription.

The reason is because malt and hops are foods for both nerves and blood.

But the ale must be pure to be of benefit. We guarantee Monessen Brewery Ale to be of absolute purity. All its virtues come straight from the malted field-barley and best Bohemian hops.

Monessen Brewery Ale is a genuine tonic—an aid to digestion.

A Pair of Cool Ones.

A man with a curious fondness for skulls was recently arrested in Stockholm who in the seventeenth century made himself celebrated by his whims. He always wore a row of these articles to keep off the cold and furthermore nine pairs of stockings. His mode of passing the night was no less remarkable still. He caused to be constructed for himself a bed in the form of a tomb which was a furnace so arranged that he could regulate it to the degree of warmth he might require, and his bed was lifted with only a very small opening through which the head could be put. He used to creep in there at 10 o'clock at night and remain until 6 in the morning. At the coronation of Charles XI. the courtiers, being at a loss to find a fitting place for the eccentric Frenchman in the procession, carried him and used for the purpose of his health. He increased himself in species of box, the interior of which by some mechanical means was kept at the only temperature at which he felt he could live without inconvenience. While enveloped in this chimney which he was necessarily confined to carry, but he traveled by rail for the reception of his friends. Even the ills of existence and rheumatism one would have thought were protected to foreigners under such circumstances as this. But the French in the matter we must have was of a different opinion. Londa Standard.

Vitality of a Frog's Heart.

There is no living creature so strong to a Philadelphia physiologist as a frog, especially the species commonly known as the water frog. It is generally known that the entire frog with the exception of the head will survive for months after the hind legs have been removed. Of course he cannot hop about as he could before losing his principal means of transit, but his fore legs help him to crawl wherever he desires to go. When I began to learn surgery I made especial use of a frog one day. I had the various parts of the body on a table and discovered that life was extinct within a few hours in every organ except the heart. The heart showed evidence of motion for a day after it had been severed entirely from the body. I am not aware that any other animal's heart is possessed of such a vitality. Philadelphia Telegraph.

Humorous.

Humorists are represented on the monuments of but very few countries before our own. That of Hoyos symbolized the humorist as a man to save that there were no laws on the soil for the extinction of cares. He must himself was in bonds of love. Even the child in the Child Crawford was invented since the days of the ancients. Humorists of all sorts, from the dignity of runments as Lyly the jewel which we ill less than Lear to come to the bottom heart of the buffoonery of Ishmael Sancho which we both as little tons and Dogberry Elbow of from 90 to 200. Humor made less its own habitat in its own way, using it.

Legend of Sambur Lake.

One of the terrors of Lapland is the wonderful Sambur salt lake concerning which there are curious legends. The story runs that an old Laplander told one of the rajahs that he wanted to be rich he should take the first return he could go with one reindeer load of salt. Thinking that as he could travel would become a field of silver always provided he did not turn. He took for thirty miles and then curiosity overcame him he looked back with the result that instead of the promised field of silver he found a lake of salt.
